LAUREL STAFF

Chronicle Staff Completes Task

The Chronicle staff of 1955 has somehow managed to get the eight editions of the M. H. S. Chronicle out on time, much to the amazement of Miss Jane Kirk, publications advisor.

Although the journalism class seemingly had no fresh ideas, the Chronicle met with almost everyone's approval. Ray Meute, the editor, had a difficult time in getting the material in to be checked and then typed. Finally, just in time, Ray and the rest of the staff breathed a sigh of relief as the material went to press.

Even though getting the material in on time is hard work and getting enough money to pay for it is even harder, as future classes will find out, the student reaps many benefits. The feeling of accomplishment one feels when he sees his work in print cannot be matched even by seeing an "A" on the hardest theme he has written. The student's English slowly improves through Miss Kirk's careful supervision. Since teamwork is necessary in producing a good paper, one learns to cooperate and get along with other people. Securing advertisements provides experience in meeting and dealing with the public.

The advertising staff managed to secure enough advertisements to finance the paper. They worked very hard and found the businessmen of McDonald very cooperative. All of the staffs worked hard to put out a Chronicle to suit all who read it.

The Chronicle staff wishes luck, success, money, and fun to all future Chronicle staffs.

Senior Cooperation Insures Successful Laurel

The Laurel is a very good example of what can be accomplished when a group works toward a common goal. This group is the Senior class of 1955, and our goal was the "Laurel", of which we are very proud.

Early in the year the various staffs were chosen at a class meeting. These included the Editorial, Business, Advertising, Art, Photography, Literary, Sports, and Circulation Staffs. The Editorial Staff, with Ray Meute as Editor-in-Chief, is responsible for assembling the yearbook. Business Staff members have the job of raising money and securing subscriptions. Money was raised by a 15-cent dance, a Barry Kaye dance, the annual boxing glove game, and selling magazines. The Advertising Staff is responsible for soliciting advertising and names of patrons. Members of the Art Staff carry out the theme of the yearbook, decided upon by the entire senior class. The Photography staff collects pictures from M. H. S. students, and the Literary Staff is responsible for the writeups under the pictures. Sports information is compiled by the members of the Sports staff, and the Circulation Staff sees to it that everyone receives his Laurel.

The Senior class wish to express their sincere thanks to Miss Kirk for her guidance and generous assistance, to Mr. Davis for his valuable help with the art work, and to the advertisers and patrons for their financial aid.

Pan-American Club Promotes Understanding of Latin America

El Club Pan-Americana, one of the more colorful organizations of M. H. S., gives the Spanish students a fuller understanding of the peoples of Latin America. At meetings held every other Friday, reports are given on Spanish-speaking countries, current news from Latin America is discussed, and Spanish music is enjoyed.

This year's many activities included a Merienda, or Spanish tea party, a chili party, and a very impressive ceremony at which Mrs. Campbell, the sponsor, presented the pins. Only Spanish was spoken at these affairs, with a penalty imposed on anyone who spoke English. Two well-attended dances were held by the club.

The outstanding event of the year was the trip to the Carnegie Music Hall to see Jose Greco, famous Spanish dancer, and his troupe. Senor Greco and two of his dancers performed a special dance at the request of the students.

Officers of the Pan-American Club are: Fernand Thomassy, president; Joanne Heron, vice president; Nancy Gillespie, secretary; and Frances DeBlander, treasurer.

J. C. L. Carries Out Roman Traditions

The Junior Classical League, under the direction of Mrs. Campbell, had a very busy and successful year. Among its numerous activities were the Saturnalia and an impressive candlelight ceremony at which the J. C. L. members received their pins, and new members were taken into the club. The Saturnalia, consisting of a banquet and entertainment provided by the first-year Latins, was carried out in the true Roman style.

A field trip to the Latin Festival held at Buhl Planetarium was a major event of the year. The students enjoyed the sky show and visited the Latin exhibit. Many interesting exhibits in the form of maps, leatherwork, and wood carving were entered. In connection with the Latin Festival, two McDonald students competed in a Latin examination held at Allegheny High School in February.

Officers of the J. C. L. are: Carol Lohman, president; Karen Cobbett, vice president; Louis Thomassy, secretary; and William Randour, treasurer.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

F. H. A. Girls Interested in Homemaking

The F. H. A. is made up of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who desire in the future years to be capable housewives in well-run homes. The club is sponsored by Miss Delores Ammons, head of the Home Economics Department.

At Christmas time the club members brought in various toys which they refinished. These toys were given to the Chamber of Commerce to be distributed to needy families.

The annual style show was as usual a great success. Home Economics students modeled the articles of clothing which they had made throughout the year.

The F. H. A. officers for this year were: Joan Supinski, president; Donna Galloway, vice president; Gloria Mazzocco, secretary; Huguette Gaillard, treasurer; Frances DeBlander, historian; and Shirley Donaldson, degree chairman.

F. N. C. Leads to Nursing Career

The Future Nurses Club is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who are interested in a nursing career, or one of its allied professions. This year the club was under the direction of the school nurse, Mrs. Elizabeth Abell.

The aims of the club are to recruit girls for nursing, to acquaint the girls with the duties, advantages, and rewards of nursing, and to make them familiar with the different phases of nursing.

Members of the F. N. C. and senior home nursing students visited the Mercy hospital during Open House. Later in the year a member of the Army Nurse Corps talked to the girls.

Three senior girls have made applications and have been accepted by Pittsburgh schools of nursing.

Officers of the club included: Phyllis McElhaney, president; Rosemary Morgan, vice president; Joan Supinski, secretary; and Joanne Heron, treasurer.

Kem Klub Reorganizes

The Kem Klub was reorganized this year under the direction of Mr. Blockowicz. The club is made up of Chemistry students interested in a career based on science. At meetings held every Thursday noon, reports are given on recent scientific developments, and experiments are performed by the members.

The Kem Klub joined the Science Club of America and, early in the year, the members purchased pins. Movies dealing with all branches of science were enjoyed by the students and proved to be of value in class work. Later in the year a very successful dance was held and a banquet was planned.

Officers of the Kem Klub are: Ronald McClain, president; Joseph Rehak, vice president; Delores Randour, secretary; Alice McWreath, treasurer; and Judith Stevenson, reporter.

Projector Club Proves Useful to School

The Projector Club is one of the most popular clubs of M. H. S. The reason for its popularity is the many movies enjoyed by the students. Mr. Blockowicz, the director, takes time from his busy schedule to give individual instruction to the club members—teaching them the operation of the projection apparatus. This includes the setting up, taking apart, and putting away of the projector, phonograph, P. A. system, and spotlights. Mr. Blockowicz has also given instruction on the operation of the tri-purpose film slide projector.

Officers elected this year included: Gary Chiff, president; William Dillon, vice president; Shirley Donaldson, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Johnston, reporter.

Majorettes and Band Add Color to School

The McDonald High School Band has contributed to the school spirit this year by participating in half-time shows at football games and also by livening up pep assemblies. The band, under the capable direction of Mr. Mruk, also marched in various parades throughout the year. Another highlight in the band's program was the annual Spring Festival which was one of the finest ever presented and which was enjoyed by an appreciative audience.

The officers of the band are: Harvey Brookins, president; and Joan Supinski, secretary.

The five high-stepping majorettes added color to the band with their clever technique.

THE CHORUS and DANCE BAND

The M. H. S. Chorus, with a fine assortment of sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses, gave a Christmas cantata for the student body. Accompanied by the band, it provided the vocal music at the Spring Festival. The chorus also sang at baccalaureate and commencement.

Mr. Mruk arranged for a group of musicians to provide the music for the Spring Chorus dance which was held in April.

Although the Dance Band started late this year, it managed, under the capable direction of Mr. Mruk, to turn out many fine performances.

Among its activities were providing the music for the Style Show and the Senior Play.

Although the senior members will be missed, the underclass members promise that next year the band will be better than ever.

Cheerleaders Boost Morale of Student Body

The M. H. S. cheerleaders deserve credit for leading the student body in cheers and school songs at football and basketball games and pep assemblies. These girls, dressed in traditional red and white, have practiced long and have worked hard at the cheers which require precision and balance. The cheerleaders serve as a cornerstone of school spirit.

The girls are sponsored by Mrs. Campbell, who has guided them capably throughout the year.

The Junior cheerleaders are younger copies of the senior cheerleaders. These girls have also worked long and hard at their cheers. They lead the cheering section at the junior high games.

There are four graduating members: Donna Galloway, head cheerleader; Gayle Gamonde, Dolores Latini, and Shirley Donaldson. The junior class members are Carole Miller and Gloria Mazzocco. The substitute is Alice Lienard.

The Senior High Pep Club

Pep Club Fosters School Spirit

The Pep Club is the "root" of our school spirit. Guided by the cheerleaders, the M. H. S. students stand behind the football and basketball players, spurring them on to victory.

The Pep Club is composed of the members of the cheering squad, the school band, and the football and basketball teams.

This year members of the club raised money by selling pennant pins and programs at the home football games and by selling shirts bearing the McDonald "Red Devil."

The Pep Club was responsible for the decorations for the Football Dance and purchased the Queen's football, made of flowers, as well as the flowers carried by the attendants.

Mrs. Campbell sponsors the Pep Club. The officers are: Donna Galloway, president; Phyllis McElhaney, vice president; Rachel Hughey, secretary; and Mary Ann Toulouse, treasurer.

Red Devils Again Contenders for Championship

For the second consecutive year the Red Devils were contenders for the W. P. I. A. L. Class "B" championship. Again the Macs had an undefeated and untied season in regular schedule. The team was eligible to enter the championship playoff because it gained the most points in Class "B" competition under the Gardner Point system.

Although defeated in the championship game, the entire team played a hard-fought game and gained more yardage and more first downs than did the opponents.

The Athletic Council again sponsored the annual football banquet when well deserved honor was paid to Head Coach Guy Tornabene, Assistant Coaches Edward Hepe and Edward Blockowicz, Co-captains Robert Klimas and Paul Chiff, the entire team, and the managers for bringing such a successful football season to M. H. S.

Mr. Tornabene had the distinction of being named Washington County "Coach of the Year."

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER — 1955

Paul Chiff, selected by the Lettermen's Club as the "Most Valuable Player" of 1955, wins the coveted award given annually to the outstanding athlete of the year. He is the eighth athlete to be so honored.

Paul, who played both varsity football and basketball, was co-captain of the football team in his senior year. The award is given to him because he meets not only the athletic requirements but also the equally important requirements of leadership, character, scholarship, and sportsmanship established in former years by the many fine athletes who have represented McDonald High School.

MANAGERS

Lettermen's Club Maintains High Standard of Sportsmanship

The Lettermen's Club is the backbone of McDonald's athletic program. It is composed of all the boys who take part in M. H. S. sports, and its purpose is to maintain McDonald's reputation for good sportsmanship and friendliness.

Each year the Lettermen's Club purchases jackets for the lettermen of football and basketball. The club also chooses a football queen who is crowned at the Football Dance, an outstanding event of the year. Donna Galloway, head cheerleader, was queen this year.

The Lettermen's Club also has the privilege of selecting the outstanding athlete of the year. This has been done since the club's organization in 1948. This year Paul Chiff was chosen as the Athlete of the Year.

Officers elected for 1955 were: Robert Klimas, president; William Dempe, vice president; John Williamson, secretary-treasurer.

The officers are assisted in their duties by the head coach, Mr. Tornabene, and assistant coaches, Mr. Blockowicz and Mr. Hepe.

Managers Contribute to Success of Athletic Teams

Managers play an important part in the athletic program of any high school. McDonald was especially fortunate this year in having a hard-working group of boys who were at least partly responsible for the successful season in football by seeing that all the players were properly equipped and fitted.

The managers are usually boys who are in the early junior high or boys who do not wish to take part in the sports program. They are chosen by the coaches and the boy with the most experience is the "head" manager.

The athletes have developed the habit of making the managers the object of practical jokes or taking everything out on them when something goes wrong. Many a manager has gone home soaking wet from being thrown into the showers, clothes and all. The managers are a cheerful and sportsmanlike group of boys and take things like unexpected showers in their stride.

Many important duties are the responsibility of the managers. They must check the equipment, keep it neat and in order, keep the sports statistics, line the field for home games, have the first-aid kit ready on short notice, tape the athletes' ankles and wrists, and have water within the reach of thirsty players. Two senior boys, Arthur Aurand and Raymond Meute, had the special responsibility of keeping score and running the clock at basketball games.

The managers of 1955 have done a fine and commendable job. The students of M. H. S. should know and appreciate the managers and give them the credit they deserve.

Donna Galloway Crowned Queen

As in former years, the Football Dance proved to be one of the outstanding events of the year. The Queen was attended by the cheerleaders, the Pep Club officers, and the senior majorettes. She chose Dolores Latini, senior cheerleader, as her maid of honor. Co-captain Paul Chiff escorted the Queen to her throne, and Co-captain Robert Klimas crowned her.

The colorful setting and the crowning ceremony make this traditional event one long to be remembered by both participants and spectators.

G. A. A. Plays Round-Robin

The girls' basketball league was off to a flying start as the teams battled in a round-robin played in gym class. The gym periods were utilized for a seven-game class series with the Junior Panthers edging the Junior Bobisoxers five games to two, and the Sophomore Devils eking out the Sophomore Trotters four games to three. In the first elimination game, Fletcher's Panthers walloped Lienard's Devils 29 to 2, and Thornton's Bobisoxers triumphed over Klimas' Trotters 28 to 17.

In the final game, the Senior Felidae copped the championship by a 13 to 5 win over the Panthers, and the Devils consoled themselves with a 6 to 4 victory over the Trotters.

Dolores Latini led the girls in high points with 58. Frances DeBlander had second high with 53 points.

The Seniors were awarded pins; the Juniors, letter M's; and the Sophomores, G. A. A. emblems.

Officers for 1954-1955 were Donna Cooper, president; Donna Galloway, vice president; Carole Miller, secretary; Nancy Gillespie, treasurer. The club was sponsored by Miss Corabelle Chambon.
